FOR CHILDREN
TRI-LAKES CASA

Tri-Lakes CASA invites you to partner with us in supporting the Family Resource Center, a space making a meaningful difference for children, youth, and families in our community. The center helps prepare transitional youth for adulthood while strengthening families through prevention-focused services. With your support, we can expand programs and maintain a safe, welcoming space for those who need it most.

The Family Resource Center provides:

- Life skills classes for youth
- Mentorship for youth and families
- Drug misuse prevention education
- A safe DCFS visitation room
- Community meeting space
- Hygiene and nutrition resources
- Computer access for jobs and education
- Parenting classes and family workshops
- Training space for CASA Advocates

Our Mission:

Tri-Lakes CASA advocates for children who have experienced abuse or neglect. The Family Resource Center strengthens that mission by supporting families and equipping youth for long-term success.
